

Colorado Medicaid Breast and Cervical Cancer Program (BCCP)

What is BCCP?

BCCP is a Medicaid program for women who have been diagnosed with breast or cervical cancer at certain screening clinics called Women's Wellness Connection sites (WWC). BCCP also covers breast and cervical conditions that may lead to cancer if not treated.

Who is eligible?

Women who:

- Have been diagnosed through a WWC site;
- Are between 40 and 64 years old;
- Have an income less than 250% of the Federal Poverty Level;
- Have not had a mammogram or Pap smear test in the last year;
- Do not have health insurance or it does not cover breast or cervical cancer treatment;
- Are not currently enrolled in Medicaid and are not eligible for Medicare; and
- Are U.S. citizens or have been legal permanent residents for at least five years.

BCCP Monthly Income Limit
